

Consent to Personal Data Processing

Hereby, when entering personal data in the rusinvestforum.org form, the user voluntarily and in their interest gives their consent to the Roscongress Foundation (registered at 11101, entrance 7, 12, Krasnopresnenskaya nab., Moscow, 123610) to personal data processing under the following terms:

- Personal data shall be processed automatically.
- The consent is granted to the following personal data processing: last name, first name, middle name (or patronymic), email, and phone number.

The purpose of personal data processing is the implementation of a set of actions aimed at:

- submission of commercial offers to conclude an invoice contract for organization of transport services during the Russian Investment Forum 2020, where one of the parties is subject to personal data processing. In this context, personal data is to be used by the Foundation exclusively for the purpose of conclusion and execution of the specified account agreement
- compliance with the legislation of the Russian Federation.

Personal data processing shall mean collection, recording, checking, structuring, storage, alteration (update), retrieval, use, transmission (distribution, dissemination, disclosure), depersonalisation, restriction, erasure, and destruction.

Transmission of personal data to third parties shall be executed under the procedure established by the legislation of the Russian Federation, agreement with the user or with the user's consent.

This consent shall remain in force indefinitely and can be revoked by the user sending a written notice to the Roscongress Foundation under the procedure established by the legislation of the Russian Federation.

The Roscongress Foundation shall cease personal data processing and destroy it within 1 (one) month from receiving the consent withdrawal notice or within the legal terms provided for by the current legislation in the absence of the consent withdrawal notice.